

Associated Oregon Loggers/SAIF partnership

Workers' comp insurance program and safety services

Safe workplaces protect workers, save employers money, and strengthen Oregon's economy. AOL's unique and long-term relationship with SAIF provides association members with specialized logging jobsite safety and return-to-work services.

AOL is an association with expertise in servicing the needs of logging customers insured in the SAIF workers' compensation program. Manager Randy Ingraham oversees the programs out of the Salem office. AOL staff has over 100 years of combined experience. Each of the safety and return-to-work-specialists are licensed workers' compensation producers.

Program features:

- Negotiating the best rates for members
- Policy review
- Audit assistance
- Certification of coverage

Program staff services:

Five statewide safety management consultants

- "In the woods" approach...assisting with safety programs and procedures
- Jobsite hazard assessments
- Assistance with safety and train-the-trainer meetings
- Oregon OSHA consultation
 - Rule compliance
 - Citation evaluation and assistance
- Accident investigation and prevention
